EXPLANATORY NOTE

This bill seeks to provide retirement pay for Barangay officials and for those who are working for the Barangay on a voluntary basis such as Barangay Tanods and Day Care workers.

Barangay workers are in the frontline of government services at the grassroots. They deliver the much needed basic social services to the people and maintain peace and order. Given the limited resources of our government, these Barangay frontliners also receive the least compensation. However, this has not discouraged some of our fellow Filipinos to serve their respective barangays and some have even stayed to serve for many years.

This bill seeks to create a Barangay Retirement Fund (BRF) which shall be used to finance the retirement benefits due barangay officials, including Barangay Tanods, members of the Lupon ng Tagapamayapa and Barangay Day Care Workers. The passage of this measure will be in recognition of those who provided genuine service and hard work to their barangays for many years

Approval of this bill is earnestly sought.
